

How the History of the 2x2 Church Became Common Knowledge

How the Hidden History of the Two by Two Church Came to Light

Sequence of Events

Revised June 29, 2026

Sequence of Events

In the first decade following the turn of the 20th century: When the sect was getting off the ground in Ireland, much was written in the Irish newspapers about the group, their activities, conventions, preachers, teachings and manner of preaching. The agency to report most extensively on the group was a newspaper named The Impartial Reporter and Farmers Journal located then and NOW in Enniskillen, Northern Ireland.

Four (4) miles from Enniskillen is Crocknacrieve, where the group's first large-scale annual conventions were held on the property of John and Sara West. Long ago, the land, home and buildings changed owners; however, they are still standing and are being used by the present owners.

While the events that took place at the formation of the group were well reported in that day, over decades the historical aspects of the group's formation have become somewhat lost, or perhaps in some areas, hidden. In the UK and Ireland especially, there were those who had grandparents present at the beginnings, so the history had been preserved orally to an extent, but in areas to which the early workers travelled, such as USA and Canada, only that version as those pioneer workers allowed was known generally. In some areas, there appears to have been a deliberate effort to hide the history of the early days, perhaps to support the notion that the "Truth" goes back to "the beginning". Bolstered by the zeal of new converts and new workers, this new tradition managed to escape truth and become even more firmly established through the middle of the 1900s.

Blowing the Whistle...

1921: Heresies Exposed: An Exposure of Some of the Prevailing Heresies of the Day was compiled by missionary W. C. (William Carleton) Irvine (no relation to William Irvine). It was one of the first books printed that critically reviewed new religious movements, e.g. the Cooneyites, Christadelphians, Christian Scientists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-day Adventists, Pentecostals and other non-mainstream groups who had become increasingly prominent. W. M. Rule's tract "The Cooneyites or Go-Preachers and Their Doctrine" (abridged) was included as a chapter in Heresies Exposed, at least by its 1929 printing.

1954: Doug Parker published a newspaper pamphlet titled: Spiritual Fraud Exposed. Thousands were circulated to the friends and workers worldwide by volunteers in mass mailings.

1958: Religion Analysis Services, of Robbinsdale, MN (RAS) a counter cult agency, became aware of the Two by Two sect and printed an article in their magazine for Jan-Mar, 1958, called The Discerner (Vol II, No. 9, Pp 12-15), titled "Who are the Cooneyites?" by Roy Divers.

1961: Thesis by Keith W. Crow: The Invisible Church, 1961 (unpublished) for Department of Sociology and the Graduate School of the University of Oregon

1977: William E. Paul printed a booklet titled: The TWO BY TWOS, Who are They? What Do They Believe? This was later republished under the title of: They Go about TWO BY TWO, The History and Doctrine of a Little Known Cult.

1979: Arthur Carl Piepkorn published Profiles in Belief: The Religious Bodies of the United States and Canada, Vol. IV Evangelical, Fundamentalist, and other Christian Bodies. Included was an essay on pages 58-62, 83-86 titled: "Christian Fellowship (People on "The Way," Disciples of Jesus, Friends, "Two-By-Twos"). For many years, this book was the standard, comprehensive reference work in the study of American and Canadian church history and theology, specifically focusing on the categorization of denominations, holiness, Pentecostal, evangelical, and fundamentalist bodies. It was used to analyze religious groups. Out of Print

1982: Through the years, many encouraged Doug Parker to enlarge upon His manuscript Spiritual Fraud Exposed, and make it into a detailed, durable book. Eventually, he and his wife, Helen, a librarian, moved to England temporarily to research and gather data from the British Library and other sources in the British Isles. Following 30 years of researching the group, the book The Secret Sect by Doug & Helen Parker was published.

1983: BookSellers USA, of Richland, WA was formed in order to help distribute Parkers' book. They advertised in weekly newspapers throughout the States and the Canadian provinces, using words that left no room for doubt in the friends' minds that, "This book is about US!" Words such as: "workers, Nameless House Sect or Church; Two by Twos; Cooneyites." The books travelled far and wide as friends ordered these books from BookSellers USA. News about Parkers' controversial book trickled slowly to the East coast, about ten years behind the West coast. Some friends knew a book existed, but were unable to locate copies without knowing the name of it. Some spent countless hours trying to locate it.

1983: The first time many American friends and workers learned about The Secret Sect was through the press in 1983. A news reporter for the Spokesman Review (Spokane, Washington) attended the Post Falls, Idaho convention. The June 5, 1983 newspaper contained two articles covering the reporters' experiences at the Idaho convention, critics' viewpoints and interview replies compared with information contained in The Secret Sect. The newspaper also contained an advertisement for a bookstore where Parkers' book could be purchased locally. Word went like wildfire around the convention grounds and the newspapers sold like hotcakes. So did the books! "Walter Pollock, a 'worker' or minister said he was disappointed to learn the Spokane articles were published simultaneously with an advertisement for a book by ex-member Doug Parker, 'The Secret Sect,' a historical account of the group's origins and an exploration of its theological positions that members consider unflattering." (Skagit Valley Herald, Milltown, Washington, Aug 17, 1983)

1985: A second article was published in Religion Analysis Services magazine, The Discerner, Vol XI, No. 9, Jan-Mar, 1985, Pp 9-11, "The Nameless Cult" by Ewald Eisele. A new section offering books and literature about the Two-by-Twos or Cooneyites turned up in their Catalogue of Books and Tracts Exposing Cults and Unscriptural Teachings in the Light of God's Word.

1987 circa. Thesis by Benton Johnson: *Christians in Hiding: The "No Name" Sect. Benton Johnson (1928-2024) was professor emeritus of sociology at the University of Oregon, former chair of both its sociology department and department of religious studies, and former editor of Journal for the Scientific Study of Religion. He was the past president of the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion, the Association for the Sociology of Religion, and the Religious Research Association. His work focused on church-sect typology, new religious movements and mainline U.S. Protestant denominations.

1988: The No-Name Fellowship: A Question of Origin...A Question of Claim (Descendancy claimed from first Acts Christians) by Carol Woster (Norway).

1989: Threshing Floor Ministries, Spokane, WA, (TFM) began researching the group in the early 1970's, and in 1989, TFM began providing the public with information about the group. They travelled to the British Isles for independent research in 1981, verifying much of what was later published in The Secret Sect. TFM laboriously obtained copies of the Impartial Reporter & Farmers Journal newspaper while travelling in N. Ireland, and combined them into a booklet. These news articles are frequently quoted in The Secret Sect and other books about the sect as well, but the articles are not cited in their entirety, nor is there a visual record of the actual news clipping. So TFM did a great service to the friends and workers by making readily available the Impartial Reporter & Farmers Journal newspaper articles; and TFM began to advertise them through mailings. Gradually, Threshing Floor Ministries became THE major source of information on the group in America, and today TFM is one of the largest archives of documents and evidence about the group.

Christian Research Institute of San Juan Capistrano, CA (aka CRI) provides information about religious cults, sects, new religious movements, alternative religions, aberrant Christian churches, etc. CRI offers information to enable individuals to understand, evaluate and compare various religious claims. CRI became aware of the Two by Two Sect, studied their doctrine and published an article on their website titled "Two by Twos." They stated the Two by Two Sect has many cultic elements and is unorthodox in its views of essential Christian doctrine, and concluded their summation with: "Therefore, from an orthodox, evangelical Christian perspective, the movement is considered to be a cult of Christianity." CRI was started by Walter Martin who retired in 1979; and since then has been led by Hank H. Hanegraaff.

MacGregor Ministries of Nelson, B.C., Canada received so many inquiries about the group that they put together a tract titled: The Cooneyites—The TWO BY TWOS—The Nameless Sect. Various Christian book stores around the country began stocking books about the group. Books turned up on the shelves of public libraries.

1990: The first quarterly newsletter was published, titled Forward Press, standing for Friends, Outsiders, & Rational Workers Against Religious Deceit. The newsletter was intended to be a support system and sounding board for those emotionally and spiritually drained by the Two-by-Two experience. Its purpose was to spotlight doctrine and deception and put pressure on the workers to be more responsible and honest. After 7 years, the Forward Press ceased to be printed, as of Dec. 1996.

1990: After 8 years, another book was self-published: The Church without a Name, under the pseudonym of David Stone.

1990: In Northern Ireland, Patricia Roberts published her book: The Life and Ministry of Edward Cooney 1867-1960.

1991: Roberts published: Selected Letters Hymns and Poems of Edward Cooney 1867-1960.

Dr. Roberts was one of a group of friends who separated from the Two-by-Twos, or "Testimony" as it is sometimes called in United Kingdom, and remained loyal to Edward Cooney after he was excommunicated. They use the 1951 edition of Hymns Old & New and are loosely referred to as "Cooneyites."

1991: Grace & Gene Luxon self-published Has the Truth Set You Free. More and more friends began to leave the group, protesting the hidden and covered up history and betrayal by the workers. Many wrote exit letters to friends and/or family explaining why they left. Some friends preferred to disregard the actual historical evidence that the group was less than 100 years old, preferring to believe what they had been taught concerning the beginning of the group; that it was from "the beginning" or started with Jesus sending out the disciples 2 by 2.

1992: Research & Information Services, Sisters, Oregon (RIS) was initially founded in Bend, Oregon. As its founding members were frustrated at the unavailability of publicly available information on Two by Twoism, it was then organized as an Oregon non-profit corporation with the express purpose of enabling the dissemination, preservation, publication, and investigation into the historical evidence of the founding of this church (with its spin-offs) and examination of its doctrines and practices in the light of the Scripture. Among its initial efforts, RIS compiled all the then-available addresses of friends and workers and launched a mass mailing campaign.

About this time, sporadic mailings also began appearing in various Canadian friends' mailboxes, from an unidentified source. RIS also took over the North American distribution for "The Secret Sect" book from Booksellers USA upon the retirement of its owners. Over the years RIS has also published several books, tracts, and other materials under its own imprint, as well as provided assistance to academic and other researchers who have investigated the Two by Two sect.

1993: Two more books were printed by Research & Information Services: Reinventing the Truth by Kevin Daniel; and Reflections: The Workers, the Gospel, and the Nameless House Sect, compiled by Daurelle Chapman, consisting of 57 accounts written by individuals who left the group.

1995, April: Telling The Truth was formed as a resource center for information, documents and publications not available elsewhere. The Basic Researcher's Guide for the Church without a Name (45 pages) was printed to assist researchers of church history. TTT started a Book Lending Library (disbanded in 2026). A website followed in 1997.

1994: Research & Information Services (RIS) created a website that includes photographs of the early workers.

1994: A Search for the Truth: The Workers Words Exposed by Lloyd Fortt. (Out of print)

1996: In January, a Canadian woman launched the first Two by Two website, the Veterans of the Truth (VOT), on the internet. Subsequently, the original website was transferred to the Expressions by Ex-Two by Two website and was removed in 2026.

1996: Reflected Truth edited by Joan F. Daniel was published..

1996: Lynn Cooper also published her book this year: The Church with No Name – Known as The Cooneyites, Two by Twos.

1996: In July, the Two by Two-Church List Serve was created using E-Mail. Within a year, there were over 100 participants in this discussion/support network. Within 2 years, there were (usually) upwards of 225 subscribers.

1996: An ex-Two by Two discovered that the Two by Two church was incorporated in Alberta Canada under the name of: Alberta Society of Christian Assemblies on May 5, 1995. The Certificate of Incorporation document was signed by five Alberta brother workers: Jim Knipe, Dennis Einboden, F. Willis Propp, Richard Knight, Eldon Kendrew, and was witnessed by Rowland Jackson. The discovery of this document shocked both Two by Twos and ex-Two by Twos and generated considerable discontent and questions, especially in Alberta. Willis Propp made a written statement dated November 18, 1996 in which he assumed full responsibility for the incorporation, apologized for his actions and stated that he had signed a legal document on Nov. 8, to revoke the incorporation.

1997: Some of today's followers of William Irvine's Omega Gospel, nicknamed the Witnesses or Message People, contacted Telling the Truth. When the split in 1914 occurred, and Irvine and the other workers went their separate ways, there were some friends and workers loyal to William Irvine who also left. Wm. Irvine kept in contact with his followers from Jerusalem from 1919 til his death in 1947, through letters, which are estimated to possibly total 5,000 letters. He wrote his followers more of the details of his Omega Gospel, as they unfolded to him. Copies of these letters have been circulated and passed down through generations, and most every adherent has their own collection.

1997: Telling The Truth (TTT) placed a this website on the internet. A virtual archive of Two by Two information and documents, including hard copies.

1997: Patricia Roberts published her book: Selected Letters of Fred Wood 1890-1986.

2000: Roberts published: The Go Preacher Movement-An Anthology.

2000: Ex-worker Willis G. D. Young, a Canadian, published his book In Vain They do Worship.

2000: The Lying Truth (TLT) placed a website on the internet that reports Two by Two news.

2001, March 27: The Professing Message Board (PMB) was founded when the hosting service stopped operation for a number of Two by Two related message boards. The PMB was created and managed by Apples and his assistant Ms. Peaches. Very soon, the PMB became the most popular Two by Two related board on the internet, enabling hundreds of Two by Twos and ex-Two by Twos worldwide to interact on a single discussion board. News, events, experiences and opinions traveled around the world in a matter of minutes or hours. Posters used any user name they wanted and were not required to register. However, it was not possible to control inappropriate and potentially libelous posts without registration. After taking a board vote, the PMB began requiring registration in 2003. Many objected strenuously and left PMB. Almost overnight, several new boards were created, all hoping to take the place of the popular PMB. The board that survived all the others where the most posters congregated was the already existing TMB. While the PMB has changed hosts, it is still on line and thousands of posts are archived there.

2002: The long lost Journal of John Long was finally located in Ireland. John Long's Journal is the most significant primary source to be discovered to date to support the fact that the Two by Twos were started in Ireland around 1897. It was typed and published on the TTT website.

2003: The Apostles' Doctrine and Fellowship by Dr. Cornelius J. Jaenen, a Two by Two. A documentary history of the early church and restorationist movements.

2003: The Truth Meetings Board (TMB) was created in protest of PMB's mandatory registration program on April 2, 2003. Many PMB posters began frequenting the TMB, which didn't require registration (yet). Then abruptly in 2008, the board host, Proboards.com, closed down TMB for libelous posts. The first Admin stepped aside at that time. After 2-3 weeks elapsed, Proboards restored TMB with a new Admin who assured Proboards that such would not be tolerated under his supervision. Registration for all posters became necessary on TMB, and Moderators were installed. Most board participants registered and continued to post on TMB following the new guidelines. TMB is still going strong to this day.

2004: Second edition of The Church without a Name was published by Kathleen (Munn) Lewis; formerly published in 1990 under the pseudonym David Stone. (Out of Print)

2007, March: The Two by Twoministry.org was created by Bradly Lewis. Site has been deactivated.

2008, January, under a different Administration, VOT was revised and updated as Veterans of Truth, Past and Present and remained online until it was removed in a hostile takeover on October 30, 2010. Subsequently, VOT returned to the internet under the new moniker of: VOT is Alive (VIA) and remained online until December 2015. Deactivated.

2008, March 7: The WINGS website went on line: Working to INform, Guide and Support those who have been sexually abused within the Two by Two Church. Devoted to Child Sexual Abuse (CSA) in the Two by Two Church, WINGS provides information, support and guidance on every aspect of CSA in the church, with the goal of encouraging change in order to protect others. WINGS is aware of numerous highly credible allegations of child sexual abuse (CSA), and adult relationships including Sexual Abuse (SA), by workers and members, and worker actions to hide cases and avoid publicity. However, due to legal issues, WINGS only posts reports of allegations and convictions that are available on public records..
