The Keswick, England Conventions are held annually in July.

There are many other Keswick Conventions held in various locations.

See their website for information about "Other Keswicks."

The annual Belgrave Heights Convention held near Melbourne, Australia, is interdenominational. The Keswick Convention in England was a formative leader in this movement where the distinctive Biblical teaching developed for which the Belgrave Heights Convention movement has become known. It is located 45km east of Melbourne in Victoria, Australia. Their website contains map, and additional information. Friends, Ex-Two by Twos and others look forward to and attend this annual convention.
