NOTE: George Walker refers to ten children in his family in one of his letters, probably because one sibling, Ellen, died at an early age. He was the longest living Walker sibling. His obituary stated: "He was preceded in death by six sisters and four brothers. Surviving are two nieces, Dorothy Forsyth of Hollywood, Ireland, and Rebecca Walker of Enniskillen, Ireland, and also grandnieces and nephews, all in northern Ireland."

The Walker Family Tree was provided by Kate Sutcliffe, who's great grandfather Robert was George Walker's older brother. Additional information was provided by Ancestry.com.

NOTE:James Fawcett, was George Walker's uncle, from Fermanagh County, Ireland. He entered the work in 1904. Born in 1886, died August 10, 1958, age 72 in Tallassee, Alabama. He wrote hymn Nos. (in 1951 Edition Hymns Old & New) 173, 215, 221, 326, and 239 (Cease Not) was especially loved, but was not reprinted in the 1987 edition.
