

1913 New Zealand Sister Workers List

1913 Sister Workers List

New Zealand

Posted November 15, 2014

1913 New Zealand Sister Workers List

Dounreay, Caithness
2.12.1913

My dear Willie, (Gill)

I am giving you a complete list of the Australian sisters, there are none in NZ at present. I also give a list of those in NZ who were in the work and are now at secular employment.

There may be slight changes since last I heard. I don't know the exact postal addresses of Amy Lawson, Mary McLeod or the 2 who are near Ohakune, but I give the home addresses of all which will find them, except as I say Amy Lawson's who has lately gone home. She was previously at domestic service near Carterton – address c/o C. Jenson, Waiharakeke, Carterton. I will ask Polly Hodgins to send you the correct addresses of above 4 as I think she has them.

I hope I won't be required as I don't see what evidence I could give. These NZ addresses won't surely be needed as they are all Colonial women.

Yours in Christ,

W. J. Hughes

Women who were preaching in New Zealand and who are at present at secular employment.

Name	Employment	Present Address	Home Address
Amy Lawson	Helping Mother	Te Kuiti, Auckland	??
Mabel Wix	Domestic service with aunt	South Dunedin	Purakaunui, Dunedin
Harriett Hooper*	Domestic Service	Milton, Dunedin	South Karori, Wellington
Susan Hooper-(sisters)	Housekeeping for her 2 bros	Reikorangi, Waikanae Wellington	South Karori, Wellington
Mary McLeod	Living w/ married sister	Blenheim, Nelson	None
Teenie Walker	Cook-restaurant	Ohakune-Main Trunk Lines	Pukekohe E. Auckland
Ella Blade	Waitress-restaurant	Ohakune-Main Trunk Lines	Kopuaranga, Masterton
Olive Billings	Dressmaking	Works in Auckland City	Pukekohe, Auckland
Ciss Taylor	Helping her mother	26 Leinster Rd, Merivale Christchurch

*Harriet Hooper has probably found employment in Dunedin City now.

These women are all New Zealanders.

Ciss Taylor has been home 4 years.

Amy Lawson 3 years and all the others 1 year, having been advised to better fit themselves if they are anxious to preach at a later date.